The Erasmus+ “CE-IP project” has completed its project cycle

After thirty-six months from its beginning (2020/2023), the CE-IP project has been brought to a positive and constructive end.

The six European partners (partnership of 6 partners coming from 5 countries) managed to conclude and to create positive impact towards the final beneficiaries of the project: (1) unemployed, self-employed and low-skilled workers coming from the productive sectors and (2) trainers approaching the continuing education systems providing courses for adults related to new employment opportunities.

Within these terms, the Erasmus+ project conceived 6 transnational meetings, it published a project management Manual, it promoted self-employment and it created new innovative and training solutions related to opportunities in the circular economy sector.

Hitherto, in order to disseminate the project's results, different social-media pages have been created: Instagram, Twitter, and Youtube; furthermore the Facebook Page, for example, has offered discussion and information to over 2.500 interested citizens collecting over 1.700 likes.

Furthermore, all of the partners submitted that the sustainability of the webpages will last for 3 more years. During this time, in fact, the consortium will continue to upload articles, videos, good practices examples and activities in the six different languages in order to continue within the development of the distinct project's objectives.

Last but surely not least, the consortium created the - Project website - in here, it is possible to freely access to all kind of knowledge, expertise, good practices, and skills to be obtained by the achievement of the Intellectual Outputs from the online Platform which is structured as follows:

- Dashboard;
- 360 webpage;
- E-learning course.
